Caius College, Cambridge, 1891. Science Exhibition, 1891. B.A. (Natural Science Tripos, Part I, First Class) 1894; M.B. 1900. Was Surgeon, Zoologist, and Artist of the National Antarctic Expedition, commanded by Captain R. Scott, R.N., of the "Discovery," which left Cowes, Isle of Wight, on 6th August, 1901, arriving off the coast of the Antarctic Continent on 9th January, 1902. At the beginning of November, 1902, Captain Scott, Lieutenant Shackleton, and Dr. Wilson started on a great sledge journey to the South, where, after enduring the greatest hardships from lack of food, frostbites, and scurvy, they were able to plant the British flag at 82. 17. S., and getting to within 463 miles of the South Pole. On the return journey Lieutenant Shackleton broke down, the dogs all died, and the entire pulling had to be done by Captain Scott and Dr. Wilson. They eventually reached the "Discovery" on 2nd February, 1904 (Antarctic Medal). In 1910 Dr. Wilson again accompanied Captain Scott on his expedition to the South Pole in the "Terra Nova" as Principal Medical Officer, Zoologist, and Artist.

Served in Tibet Expedition, 1903-1904; action at Niani, operations at and around Gyantse; and march to Lhasa (twice wounded, V.C., Medal with clasp); was awarded the Victoria Cross for the following act: "On the occasion of the storming of the Gyantse Jong on July 6th, 1904, the storming company, headed by Lieut. Grant, on emerging from the cover of the village, had to advance up a bare, almost precipitous rock-face, with little or no available cover, and under a heavy fire from the curtain, flanking towers on both sides of the curtain, and other buildings higher up the Jong. Showers of rocks and stones were at the time being hurled down the hill-side by the enemy from above. One man could only go up at a time, crawling on hands and knees, to the breach in the curtain. Lieut. Grant, followed by Havildar Karbir Pun, 8th Gurkha Rifles, at once attempted to scale it, but on reaching near the top, he was wounded, and hurled back, as was also the Havildar, who fell down the rock some thirty feet. Regardless of their injuries, they again attempted to scale the breach, and covered by the fire of the men below, were successful in their object, the Havildar shooting one of the enemy on gaining the top. The successful issue of the assault was very greatly due to the splendid example shown by Lieut. Grant and Havildar Karbir Pun. The latter has been recommended for the Indian Order of Merit."
